DISCLAIMER: This announcement must be read in conjunction with the Consent Solicitation Memorandum. The Consent Solicitation Memorandum contains important information which should be read carefully before any decision is made with respect to the Amendments. If any Noteholder is in doubt as to the action it should take, it is recommended to seek its own financial advice, including in respect of any tax consequences, immediately from its stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other independent financial adviser. Any individual or company whose Notes are held on its behalf by a broker, dealer, bank, custodian, trust company or other nominee must contact such entity if it wishes to vote in respect of the Amendments. None of the Issuer, the Solicitation Agents, the Tabulation Agent, the Principal Paying Agent, the U.S. Registrar or the Trustee for the Notes makes any recommendation as to whether or not or how holders of the Notes should vote in respect of the Amendments.

The distribution of this announcement in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law and persons into whose possession this announcement comes are requested to inform themselves about, and to observe, any such restrictions.
