Affinity Flat Rate Credit Card

Customer Copy Agreement

Credit Agreement regulated by the Consumer Credit Act 1974

YOUR RIGHT TO CANCEL

Once you have signed, you will have for a short time a right to cancel this Agreement. You can do this by sending or taking a WRITTEN notice of cancellation to the Co-operative Bank Visa Centre, P.O. Box 150, Delf House, Skelmersdale, Lancashire, WN8 6GG. If you cancel this Agreement, any money you have paid, goods given in part exchange (or their value) and property given as security must be returned to you. You will still have to repay any money lent to you. But if you repay all of it before your first instalment is due - or, if you are not paying by instalments, within one month after cancellation - you will not have to pay interest or other charges. Any goods which you already have under the Agreement, apart from any purchase out of a cash loan, will have to be returned. Such goods should not be used and should be kept safe. Legal action may be taken against you if you do not take proper care of them. You can wait for them to be collected from you and you need not hand them over unless you receive a written request. If you wish, however, you may return the goods yourself. You will not, however, be required to hand back any goods supplied to meet an emergency or which have already been incorporated, for example, in your home. But you will still be liable to pay for emergency goods or services or for any goods which have been incorporated by you or one of your relatives. The minimum payment is either 2% of the amount shown as owing to us on your statement or £5 (whichever is the greater). Payment is only made when cleared funds are credited to the account. If there is an outstanding balance, you are required to pay us even if for some reason you have not received your monthly statement
