We, us or our means The Co-operative Bank p.l.c., P.O. Box 101, 1 Balloon Street, Manchester M60 4EP. You can contact us on 08457 212 212 or by writing to Customer Services Manager, The Co-operative Bank p.l.c., Delf House, Skelmersdale WN8 6GH.

1. Your account

- 1.1 To open an account you must be a UK resident 16 or over and to have an account you must receive a regular payment (i.e. wage, salary, pension) which you must pay into your account.
- 1.2 We can refuse to accept an application to open an account from you or a deposit.
- 1.3 You can only use your account as a personal account. You must not use it as a club, charity, sole trader, company, partnership or other kind of business account or for any business purposes.
- 1.4 You can allow another person to deal with your account. If you want to do this we will require you to sign a document called a third-party mandate permitting such person to deal with your account. You can also appoint an attorney under a power of attorney. This legal document allows another person to act for you when you are not able to. If you allow another person to deal with your account they must do so in accordance with these conditions and you will be responsible for their actions or omissions as if they were your own.
- 1.5 You may open a joint account; all joint account holders must comply with these conditions. Joint account holders will each be fully responsible for all actions and omissions relating to the account. Please see condition 18 relating to joint accounts.
- 1.6 The currency of the account will be Sterling.

2. Cheques

Paying a cheque into your account

- 2.1 When you pay a cheque into your account you will have to wait a maximum of four business days after the business day it has been paid in before you can withdraw the money. If you pay a cheque into your account via a Post Office® the payment into your account will be delayed by up to two business days and, therefore, you will have to wait a maximum of six business days after the business day it has been paid in before you can withdraw the money.
- 2.2 A cheque paid into your account may be returned unpaid. If this happens we will tell you and the amount may be taken from your account. We may ask for payment again from the bank of the person who issued the cheque or return it to you. If you withdraw some or all of the amount of a cheque which is later returned unpaid and this withdrawal or the unpaid cheque causes your account to go overdrawn or over any formal overdraft limit this will be considered an informal request to access our overdraft services in accordance with condition 13. You can assume that at the end of six business days, the cheque is cleared. After this time you are protected from any loss if the cheque is subsequently returned unpaid, unless it is found to be fraudulent or you are a knowing party to fraud.

Payments by cheque

- 2.3 If you issue a cheque the money will be taken from your account three business days after the person being paid pays it into their bank account, unless it is paid into a building society, a bank outside the United Kingdom or a Post Office®, where it may take longer. If you cash a cheque at one of our branches the amount will be deducted from your account the same day provided it is a business day.
- 2.4 When you write a cheque it is important to take all reasonable precautions to prevent anyone else altering it. For example, clearly write the name of the person being paid and their account name or number, e.g. HMRC (account AN Other). Always draw a line through unused space on the cheque, to prevent extra numbers or names being added. Do not write a future (or post) date on a cheque as it may not prevent the person being paid from paying it into their bank before that date and payment being made.
- 2.5 You can tell us to stop a cheque by telephoning 08457 212 212. The charge for stopping a cheque is set out in our account charges leaflet. We cannot stop or cancel a cheque that has been guaranteed by your cheque guarantee card. (Please see condition 2.7 for details.)
- 2.6 If we receive one of your cheques for payment and it is more than six months old we may, but we do not have to, pay it.

- 2.7 You may use your card as a cheque guarantee card if it has a cheque guarantee hologram. After 1st June 2010 any cards issued to new customers or any card issued to existing customers (whether as a result of expiry or upon reissue when reported lost or stolen) will not include the cheque guarantee hologram and this clause (2.7) will no longer apply.

We guarantee to pay a cheque guaranteed with your card provided:

- your card contains a cheque guarantee hologram
- the cheque is drawn on the account
- the cheque is issued and dated before the expiry date on your card
- the cheque is signed by you in the presence of the person being paid
- the signature on your card and the cheque are the same
- your card number is written on the back of the cheque by the person being paid
- your card has not been altered or defaced
- the cheque is dated with the actual date of issue
- the amount is within the cheque guarantee limit stated on your card.

You cannot stop a cheque guaranteed with your card and you must only issue one guaranteed cheque in any single transaction. If you issue a guaranteed cheque and this would cause your account to overdraw or exceed any formal overdraft limit we will consider this an informal request for our overdraft services in accordance with condition 13 and you may be charged as set out in our account charges leaflet.

- 2.8 For security and fraud prevention purposes, if your cheque book or any cheques are lost or stolen or have been used by someone else, please tell us immediately you are aware by telephoning us on 0845 600 6000.

3. Cash

- 3.1 When you pay cash into your account at any of our branch counters or with your card at a Post Office® the money will be available immediately after we receive it, provided the payment in is made before 4.30pm. Cash paid in after 4.30pm will be credited to your account the next business day.
- 3.2 You may withdraw cash from your account by using your card at a cash machine or at any of our branches. If you use your card to withdraw cash from some cash machines you may be charged a cash withdrawal fee as follows:
 - a fee for any cash withdrawn from a UK cash machine displaying the VISA or PLUS sign (i.e. a machine which does not display the LINK symbol) as set out in our account charges leaflet

 - the conversion rate may not be the same as when the cash was withdrawn as rates may vary
 - some cash machines operated by other financial organisations may apply an additional charge for use of their machine. If this is the case you will be told the charge before you make a withdrawal.Our fees are set out in the account charges leaflet.
- 3.3 We will not be responsible if you cannot use your card in a cash machine operated by another financial organisation.
- 3.4 You may withdraw cash from your account by using your card at any other bank branch which is authorised by VISA (e.g. another high street bank showing the VISA sign). If you do you will be charged a VISA cash withdrawal fee. Please see our account charges leaflet.

 - BACS, Direct Debits and standing orders

All this information is available to you by accessing your account on the internet or on request through telephone banking.
- 4.4 In deciding which account is to be credited with monies we receive, we will use and rely on ONLY the unique identifier. It is your responsibility to ensure that the sender has the correct information. If the unique identifier is wrong we will not be responsible to you or the sender for failure to credit your account or any resulting loss of funds. This applies even if the sender also supplies other information such as your name.
- 4.5 If a payment is fraudulently or mistakenly paid into your account, the amount of the payment may subsequently be removed from your account. This may be the case even if you have used all or part of the money. If removal of the payment from your account would either make your account go overdrawn or over an agreed overdraft limit this will be considered an informal request to access our overdraft services in accordance with condition 13.
- 4.6 If you or the sender ask us to assist in recovering funds where an incorrect unique identifier has been used, we will use our reasonable efforts to do so and may charge you our reasonable costs for this.
- 4.7 If we receive monies for your account in a currency other than Sterling, we will:
- convert the amount received into Sterling using a rate of exchange based upon the interbank dealing rate applicable to the market from time to time. (The conversion rate may not be the same as when the monies were sent, as rates may vary.)
 - take from the Sterling amount the charges for this service as set out in our account charges leaflet
 - credit the Sterling amount (less applicable charges) to your account immediately after we receive them (Please see condition 4.2).

- If possible we will use the Faster Payments system, meaning the funds will, in most cases, be available in the recipient's account within two hours. The Faster Payments system depends on the recipient's account being able to receive the monies and to financial limits. Please see internet banking or contact us on 08457 212 212 for further details.
- You can tell us to make a payment in Sterling to a recipient in the United Kingdom and provided you tell us before close of business the funds can be sent to the recipient bank the same day by the CHAPS system. - 5.5 Funds transfers between current and savings accounts held with us instructed either by telephone or internet banking will be available to draw on the same business day provided the instruction is before 9pm. - 5.11 For your protection there may be a delay in us carrying out your payment instructions while monitoring and/or fraud prevention checks take place.
- 5.12 Unless you have requested a payment to be made on a future date, or you have given us your payment instruction after close of business on a business day, the payment instruction will be regarded as having been received by us at the time you give it, and therefore you will not be able to cancel it after that time.
- 5.13 If you make a payment instruction after the close of business on a business day, or on a day that is not a business day, the time of receipt will be the next business day or, for future dated payments, the date stated for the payment to be made. - 7.1 You may use your card for regular card payments without having to use your card on each occasion that payment is to be made, e.g. monthly payment to a retailer.
- 7.2 In addition to regular card payments, you may authorise Direct Debits to be made from your account. These regular payments are made at the request of another person who either directly or through their bank participates in the Direct Debit scheme. To use this service you will be asked to provide a Direct Debit mandate in that person's favour.
- 7.3 You agree we may pay the amount requested under Direct Debit or regular card payments even though the amount was not known or specified at the time you gave the authorisation and the amount of each payment varies.
- 7.4 Each time a payment is due to be made under a Direct Debit or regular card payment you agree that it will be a payment instruction to make the payment on the relevant future date referred to in the Direct Debit mandate or specified to us by the retailer, but if that date is not a business day, the date for payment will be the next business day. The time of receipt of the payment instruction will be the business day prior to the day on which the payment is to be made.

- 13.1 If you wish to use your account to borrow from us you can do so by use of our overdraft services. You must be aged 18 or over.
- 13.2 You can request use of our overdraft services either formally (in accordance with condition 13.3) or informally (in accordance with condition 13.4). We would always encourage you to request our overdraft services formally rather than informally.
- 13.3 You can request our overdraft services before your account goes overdrawn and if we agree to your request we will tell you your overdraft limit, confirm the terms of your overdraft in writing and we will charge you in accordance with the charges set out in our account charges leaflet.

We will consider such payment or withdrawal as an informal request to access our overdraft services in accordance with this condition 13.4. It will be within our discretion to agree your request for overdraft services in these circumstances and we can charge you as set out in our account charges leaflet. An overdraft not agreed in advance is more expensive than one that is.
- 13.5 Whether or not we agree any request from you under condition 13.4, you agree to immediately pay into your account enough money to bring your account into credit or within any formal overdraft limit.
- 13.6 We may at any time reduce any formal overdraft limit, subject to these conditions.
