Monthly cap on unarranged overdraft charges	The monthly cap on unarranged overdraft charges for your current account is £60. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Each current account will set a monthly maximum charge for: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> going overdrawn when you have not arranged an overdraft; or going over/past your arranged overdraft limit (if you have one). This cap covers any: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> interest and fees for going over/past your arranged overdraft limit; fees for each payment your bank allows despite lack of funds; and fees for each payment your bank refuses due to lack of funds. This is a standard definition to allow you to compare unarranged overdraft charges across different providers but in practice, we don't actually charge fees for refusing a payment due to a lack of funds. The monthly cap refers to the charges applied in a charging period, not a calendar month. We explain what we mean by this below and overleaf.
Charging period	Unless we tell you otherwise on your statement, the charging period used for interest, commission and charges is the fifth day of the first month of the charging period to the fourth day of the next month.
